RECORD ON THE STEALS.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS IN EACH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

How Members of Congress Voted on the River and Harbor Bill and on the Monitor Job Engineered by Renshaw and Robeson.

[Alphabetically compiled from the Congressional Record.]

Under the above headings the New York Sun of September 6th published five columns of names of Congressmen. In its proper place is the following paragraph:

Nevada.
CASSETT, GEORGE W. (Dem.)—Not voted on the original River and Harbor bill, voted against the increased steel, and aided the thieves by passing on the veto. Ought to be ashamed of himself, for he lacks even the excuse of selfishness. No water in his State that doesn't come from the clouds. Dodged the Holman amendment, and voted for the Robeson amendment, and voted for the Naval Appropriation bill.

NOT THIS NEWSPAPER; SOME OTHER NEWSPAPER.

The Report says: The campaign in Nevada has degenerated into a low-down, rough-and-tumble fight between newspaper editors who are throwing mud at one another and washing dirty linen—or calico—in public till citizens generally pray for the termination of the campaign loudly but nasally, their noses being meanwhile compressed between finger and thumb.

The initial number of the Sierra Valley Leader is issued. The good people of Sierra Valley will find a newspaper not only a great convenience, but a most useful auxiliary in many ways, if they are able to support it.

THE POLITICAL MACHINE.

Against the machine each statesman wars, And vengeful words doth utter, And aly o' his own machine, With words as smooth as butter; And when one's hit with the machine, Off steals he in a flutter, And with his own machine goes forth To butt the other butter.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

Egypt's Troubles.
ALEXANDRIA, September 23. General Wood, on the march to Damietta, reached Chieba last evening and was to remain until 3 o'clock in the morning. The railway is blocked by deserters from Abdallah's camp. General Wood telegraphs that Abdallah's troops continue to desert. Of 7000 originally, only 800 blacks remained. They plundered the barracks, the Governor's house and many private residences and exchanges in Damietta. General Wood, with two regiments, arrived at Damietta to-day. Abdallah surrendered at the railway station. The troops are expected to surrender their arms this afternoon. The surrounding country is quiet. Crops are in splendid condition. The negro garrison, instead of surrendering, fled, taking, besides plunder, a large quantity of ammunition.

CAIRO, September 23. Gen. McPherson and staff arrived last night. The Indian troops leave Zagazig to-night on the march to Alexandria.

It is officially announced from Judah that the Grand Sheer of Mecca has been deposed and imprisoned at Taife, where Midhat Pasha is prisoner. Adallah Abricaun has been named Grand Sheer. He is brother to the Sheer of who was murdered some time ago, as was supposed, by order from the Sultan, because he was favorable to the British.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—A call will probably be issued for $25,000,000 of extended five.

—Mrs. Jane Hickey and Christopher Carlan were drowned to-day in look Delaware on the Raritan canal.

—Ex-Lieut. George S. Rousseau yesterday shot himself through the head at Laredo, Texas, killing himself instantly.

—Six thousand miners in North Staffordshire, England, have given notice of a demand for an advance of 10 per cent in wages.

—The locomotive engineers on the Gould system of railroads west of the Mississippi threaten to strike and stop every wheel except those on the Washburn line and enough to carry the mails on the other lines.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

It is called to Order Promptly and Goes to Work.

A little after 10 o'clock this morning L. J. Flint, Chairman of the County Central Committee called the Convention to order, and suggested the name of Hon. Wm. Webster for Chairman, who was unanimously elected. Judge Webster said this Convention was met to place a ticket before the people. There has been no time in 25 years when men were so little separated by party, and there was needed a good ticket to go before the people. The Democrats have plenty of good timber and this body of men was as high a class as could be selected anywhere. Therefore there could be a good ticket made from the material at hand. About the only issue before the county even in national politics is the tariff. Even that is not a live issue in a local election. The greatest question now is the growth of corporations. That is a live issue, and it must be controlled by national and State legislation. Therefore let good men be sent to the Legislature.

F. C. Updike was elected temporary Secretary, and A. C. McFarlin, temporary Sergeant-at-Arms. The Chair appointed George Hill, of Wadsworth, A. D. Griffin, of Reno, John P. Richardson, of Reno, Pat Henry, of Verdi, and Wm. Gregory, of Washoe, a Committee on Credentials, and Ed. A. Rankin, Ross Lewers, J. W. Whitehead, Wm. Hoffman and James Conroy a Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business. J. D. Shaw, Judge Hayden and Wm. Webster were selected by the Convention as a Committee on Platform and Resolutions. Mr. Rankin moved that all votes be taken viva voce, instead of by secret ballot. Mr. Richardson opposed the motion. He said it was undemocratic. Lots of men did not want anyone to know whom they voted for. Judge Hayden thought the motion was premature. The motion was lost. The Convention adjourned until 1 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 1:25 p. m., Judge Webster in the chair. The Committee on Credentials reported that the delegates elected at the primaries (as published in last evening's GAZETTE) were entitled to seats in the Convention. The report was adopted. The Committee on Resolutions and Platform reported recommending the adoption of the platform of the Eureka Convention. Carried. George A. Rankin, from the Committee on Permanent Organization and Order of Business, reported as follows: Your Committee recommend that the temporary officers of this Convention be made the permanent officers; that is to say: Permanent Chairman, W. C. Updike; permanent Sergeant-at-Arms, A. C. McFarlin.

We would also recommend the appointment of an assistant secretary, and would suggest the name of Ed. Winfrey.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- 1st—The nomination of District Judge.
- 2d—Sheriff.
- 3d—Clerk.
- 4th—Auditor and Recorder.
- 5th—Treasurer.
- 6th—Assessor.
- 7th—District Attorney.
- 8th—Long term Commissioner.
- 9th—Short term Commissioner.
- 10th—Superintendent of Public Instruction.
- 11th—State Senator.
- 12th—Three Assemblies.
- 13th—County Central Committee.

The Committee recommended that each candidate coming before the Convention for any office be assessed $5—and be required to endorse the State and county platforms. The Committee also recommended that all candidates be nominated by a viva voce vote.

Objections were made to the last clause in the report recommending a viva voce vote. After some discussion the report was rejected and a motion made that the report be received with the objectionable clause stricken out. The Chairman ruled the motion out of order and an appeal from the chair was taken and sustained. The motion was renewed to strike out that clause of the report, and carried.

Judge Webster suggested that two Vice Presidents be selected. J. J. Becker and Wm. Gregory were so chosen.

DISTRICT JUDGE

Being first in order, Mr. Whitehead proposed Hon. Samuel D. King. Mr. Rankin seconded the nomination, saying that natural ability, education, and character eminently fitted him for the position. He believed he would be elected by a fine majority.

came to him and said "Webster, it is enough."

H. J. Berry and G. E. Hills were appointed tellers. Judge King stepped on the platform and said that asking for a judicial position it would not be well or expected for him to make a political speech. He endorsed the platform, and said whoever was on the ticket should have his support. If he was nominated and elected, he would give to the high trust, his best exertions and would endeavor to live so he should never be ashamed to look any attorney or client in the face. His only inspiration was his own conscience, and whatever might be meant by other references he had no regard for. Gen. Kittrell appeared and said his friends had been partial enough to nominate him for the office of Judge. Flattering speeches had been made and he had listened to them with pleasure. He loved it as the child did molasses candy. He endorsed the platform. He said no railroad magnate ever made a fight for Kittrell. No railroad man ever offered to bet $500 to $1 that Kittrell would be nominated. He wanted it understood that no railroad superintendent ever dictated to him in or out of office. Bill Chamberlain was not his champion. He wished everyone to understand that Bill Chamberlain had never put up a dollar in his fight. Gen. Kittrell read the plank on railroads from the platform and endorsed it. Indorsing the demand for the Reagan bill and for a reduction of railroad charges, he said they were trying to beat him to-day. Still, if elected to the office of Judge he would be just. Exact and even handed would be his guide. Railroads are a good thing and more should be built. Fire is a good thing, but no man puts it in a wooden stove. So with railroads. They should be made the servants of the people and not the masters. If elected he would not be the creature of Yerington or the servant of Stanford. He would be with the people if they had law on their side. Mr. Knox was called and said he would not attempt a speech. He had aspired for the nomination and had been in the field for months. He did not come to gain an office. He had lived here 17 years and had led several forlorn hopes. He left his record to speak for him. The vote stood, King, 81; Kittrell, 12; Knox, 1. Mr. Lewers moved that the vote be made unanimous. Judge King stepped to the stage and thanked the convention, saying that it came very pleasantly to his ears, after the remarks that had been made.

FOR SHERIFF.

Rankin named L. J. Flint and half a dozen seconded the nomination. He was elected by acclamation. Rankin nominated R. S. Osburn, and Captain Griffin seconded it. He was also nominated by acclamation. J. B. Williams was nominated for Recorder and Auditor by acclamation. J. H. Boreman of Verdi was nominated for Treasurer by acclamation. C. H. Stoddard was named for Assessor, and Roger Johnson for District Attorney by acclamation.

For long-term Commissioner J. J. Quinn and D. H. Lodge were nominated.

The vote stood: Lodge 37, Quinn 5. W. M. Anderson, F. C. Updike and W. M. Hoffman were nominated for short term Commissioner. Mr. Hoffman declined. Anderson was nominated.

E. E. Winfrey was nominated by acclamation for School Superintendent.

W. F. Berry was nominated for State Senator and the Convention adjourned for an hour.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Grover H. Cleveland Nominated for Governor of New York.

SYRACUSE, September 22.

The balloting in the Democratic Convention resulted in the nomination of Grover A. Cleveland for Governor on the third ballot. Lieutenant Governor, David B. Hill, Mayor of Elmira; Congressman-at-large, General Henry W. Sloo; Judge of the Court of Appeals, William C. Ruger. The Democratic journals are enthusiastic over their State ticket, while the Republicans, considering their own ticket, are lukewarm or indignant.

During the session to-night a dispute suddenly arose between Anthony Barrett, of Brooklyn, and General Pryor, which culminated in Pryor's striking Barrett.

A Broker Skips.

NEW YORK, September 23.

Alonzo Follet, a Wall street broker, alleged to be short in his accounts, had not up to a late hour visited his office to-day. His absence filled the street with rumors of such a nature as to create a decided feeling of alarm among his customers, many of whom called and asked anxiously for him. To all inquiries the response was given that his arrival was expected. The amount of the shortage is placed at not less than one million.

Of Interest to Odd Fellows.

BALTIMORE, September 22.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows this morning went to work on the report on appeals. The appeal of Samuel Baker vs. the Grand Lodge of Nevada, was sustained; also, the appeal of D. W. Welty vs. the Grand Lodge of California. This appeal has been before the Sovereign Grand Lodge for four years, and is known among Odd Fellows as the Robinson case.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

A Disastrous Flood.
PLAINFIELD, N. J., September 23. It has been raining continually for eighteen hours and the streams are much swollen. The streets are full of water and the damage to property is heavy. At 1:30 Grove street bridge over Green brook in this city, suddenly gave way while crowded with people watching the flood. Six persons were rescued, but a number it is believed have perished. Both dams at Scotch Plains are washed out, and the water is four feet deep in the streets of the village.

A Big Fire at Susanville.
SUSANVILLE, September 23. About 2 o'clock this morning a fire was discovered in a warehouse in the rear of Blum & Alexander's store, which soon spread, destroying the buildings of two entire blocks of the business portion of the town, including the whole of Chinatown. The probable loss is over $150,000.

A large fire broke out at Fort Smith, Ark., last night in the business part of the town. At last accounts a dozen buildings had been consumed.

SPORTS.

Read D. F. (Yankee) Dodge's ad. under "New To-Day."

Several freight teams with merchandise for Sanville left Lee's yard this morning.

Vases and toilet sets at Nash's. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3—68, 72, 76, 77, 79.

Captain Griffin had his right finger crushed in the machinery of the Antelope mill, a few days ago.

One more Reno Guard dance will totally disintegrate the journalistic and typographical fraternity of Reno.

Conundrum—What is the difference between Jacobs and a doctor? He, he, he, hol Jacobs makes fits and the doctor cures 'em.

There was a colony of Dutch from Holland on the morning train, bound for Southern California. They will be able to give people some solid facts about irrigation.

There will be another search for the bodies of the drowned Larcombes. As time passes more interest is felt in the recovery of the corpses, which undoubtedly lie in some unexplored crevice.

An old sport came in from Montana last night, heart-sick and sore all over, and to an old chum he relieved himself: "By the holy Jesse, a fellow can't live in a country where 10 cents taps the bank. I'm going to Bodie, where a man can starve decently."

A. T. Rice, the milkman, thinks he has struck a good thing. There is such an increased demand for butter-milk that he is training some of his cows to yield the real article, so that his customers may have it fresh every morning. He is feeding them old chums and coffee-mills.

PERSONALS.

F. W. Merrill, of the Antelope mine, is in town.

Lieut. Gov. Adams is at Pieche. Herding votes, probably.

Hon. Wm. Woodburn is not a candidate for District Judge of Storey.

A. A. Travis was in town last night, from Wadsworth, to see his old friends.

L. L. Crockett has withdrawn from the candidacy for the nomination of Treasurer of Ormsby county.

Captain G. G. Lyon, private secretary to Governor Kinkaid, is a candidate for the Assembly from Ormsby county.

J. M. Mateer, captain of the State Prison guard, is in town to-day. The Democratic County Convention is the attraction.

Mrs. S. J. Gee, Mrs. B. Runyon and the two Misses Dodson, all of Surprise Valley, left Reno to-day, en route East to visit friends.

Johnny Oullen, whom every Comstocker knows, came in from Montana last night and left for Bodie this morning—and he will be glad to get back to the town.

Joseph Yocco, the Italian recently injured by a runaway mule in Spanish Springs Valley, mentions of which was made in the GAZETTE, has been brought in to the Wm. Tell House, and bids fair to get well.

A Comfortable Cattle Car.

Cattle raisers and dealers have for a long time tried to get railroad companies to furnish stock cars that would be better arranged to prevent animals from suffering while being transported from one place to another. The following method seems to be a good one: The cars of a train are divided into four compartments, each capable of holding four or five steers, giving the animals a chance to lie down and rest. The feed-boxes are on the roof, and are connected by a chute with the feeding troughs, which run along the side of the car. The troughs are reversible, and when not in use can be turned upside down to avoid the accumulation of dust and dirt. A water-pipe runs the whole length of the train—the connections being made with adjustable hose—and the animals can be watered at once.

A Chance for Coal-Miners.

It is probable that coal mines will some day be developed in the country immediately north and west of Pyramid lake. Specimens of really good coal may be found on the shore of the lake apparently quite fresh from a vein. About twenty miles from Reno, west of the lake, is a hill full of strata of lignite, which would perhaps pay well to prospect. There is an endless quantity of the material, which might improve in quality if sunk upon. That now in sight, however, would doubtless make tolerable steam fuel. It is worth somebody's while to look after this. Fuel, like beef, will take a jump before many years.

More Cattle.

Eleven car-loads of cows and calves went West last night. They were shipped by Wright & Berger, of Winnemucca.

Started Up.

Antelope mill started up Thursday. The mill and pans run nicely and Captain Griffin says he is going for blood now.

"Hazel Kirke."

In America "Hazel Kirke" has obtained a national reputation and become almost a household word. Its construction is perfect. No inharmonious tints mar the natural bearings of its plot; it forms the notable event of an epoch, and to witness it as presented by the company soon to appear in our midst is a recollection to be borne for a lifetime. It is so true and so well poised upon the action of passion, love and all the concomitant evils resulting from misdirected human ambition that the piece ranks above its fellows of that class, and its nature becomes superior to art. "Hazel Kirke," the heroine of the play, by Miss Effie Ellsler, has no equal. Her acting shades the planes of mortal imperfections, and moves in a sphere where the efforts of the soul touch a responsive chord in the hearts of the most apathetic audience. The Madison Square company will appear at the Nevada Theater next Wednesday evening.

Good Horses and a Good Track.

A GAZETTE reporter visited the track yesterday afternoon and found the track in fine shape. L. Dean is Superintendent this year and S. A. Hooper is foreman for him. The track has never been better. It improves every year. There are several horses at work there. The Bridgeport mare, not named yet, and Fred B. exercise daily. L. Dean's St. Nicholas is in good trim. Ernest and Ballot Box are good runners. Bradley also has a trotter named Black Charley. Geo. L. Richardson has four runners, three from Carson Sink with Chandler at the head. D. Wall's trotter Douglas closes the list.

Lassen Items.

[From the Advocate of the 21st.] Examination of teachers on the 5th of October.

The codlin moth has damaged the fruit in this section.

The Eagle Lake tunnel is at present in 575 feet in solid rock.

Denis Wood has a band of 1,800 sheep between here and Horse Lake, which will arrive here to-morrow. These sheep were brought from Oregon, and it is thought they will be sold in this section.

We are credibly informed that after two weeks Meylert's stages between Susanville and Reno will connect with the N. & O. at Antelope station. Arrangements to that effect have been perfected.

Major Byers will commence, on the 20th of next month, to fatten 1,000 head of beef cattle for the San Francisco market. To insure a sufficiency of hay, he has purchased of the Wood brothers of Tule Confederacy 800 tons which, with the very large amount out on his own ranch, he thinks will carry him through the winter.

The Exhibition Drill and Hop.

The exhibition drill and dance of the Reno Guard last evening was well attended. The drill was good, but the company did not do as well as usual. The four markers, Ed. Moger, Fred White, Robert Gier and A. Linn, went through the manual of arms by the tap of a drum in a manner highly creditable to them. Every movement was executed with the greatest precision. The boys were heartily applauded. The hop was very pleasant and dancing was kept up until a late hour.

The Harvest Moon.

In September the moon falls on the 27th at 12:26 A. M. It is the beautiful harvest moon, and possesses special claim to distinction; for owing to the position of the ecliptic in regard to the equator this season, the moon rises for several consecutive nights with only a comparatively small interval between the successive rises. The short autumnal days thus seem to be prolonged by the floods of silvery light, that make the night beautiful in the day. In olden times when man was nearest to nature, the harvest moon was considered a direct interposition of Providence to assist the husbandman in gathering in the harvest.

Going North.

Travis & Epperson will soon complete their logging contract at Truckee. They have done a great deal of work this season, and their friends hope they have made some money. Having about 70 head of fine mules and horses, and some of the best wagons ever built, they must find employment for their stock, and they therefore propose to send their whole outfit to Washington Territory to seek business. They are enterprising men, and a benefit to any community in which they may locate.

The Schools to be Graded.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Reno School District, held last evening, the Board decided to sustain Prof. Carr in his action in grading the schools according to the plans presented by the Board; and he is hereby authorized to enforce the scholars to a strict compliance in following the course of studies adopted. By order of the Board. D. D. Bowen, Clerk. Reno, Sept. 22, 1898.

Desert Lands.

The General Land Office at Washington has made the following ruling: "Lands which produce wild grass, but not in sufficient quantity to pay for cutting as hay, are desert lands, and may be entered as such; but when the character of the land is such that a crop of hay may be produced without irrigation, such land is not subject to desert entry."

The Primaries.

The Republican primaries to-day are going off quietly. Only nine tickets in the field, and the candidates themselves hardly know which ticket to vote. Up to the GAZETTE's press hour 140 votes had been polled. J. F. Holladay, A. Moger and R. C. Eide are judges, and Finlay Cook and S. J. Bryant checks. It is impossible to foretell the result.

Sunday Excursion.

An excursion train will leave Reno at 10 o'clock to-morrow for the "front" on the Nevada & Oregon. Fare for the round trip, $3. The train will return at 5 o'clock P. M.

Privileges Awarded.

Pool privileges at the Fair have been awarded to Killip & Co., and the restaurant privilege to S. A. Harper. The bar privilege was awarded to McInnis & Smith.

Will Take a Hand.

The Carson Guard are talking of sending a shooting team to the Fall meeting of the Pacific Coast Rifle Association at Oakland next month.
